

Blessing Plaques

Praying for Longevity, Wealth, and Well-being

Life is impermanent. Designate the blessing plaque regularly for oneself, parents, relatives, friends and loved ones to overcome life obstacles and pray for blessing, longevity and physical well-being.

Blessed by the Buddhas and Bodhisattvas' divine light, our physical well-being is enhanced, wisdom is developed, life is prolonged, and the mind is purified.

The blessing plaques are enshrined in the Blessing Hall at the Triple Crane Retreat Center.

Resident Sanghas recite sutras during daily ritual either in the morning or evening and dedicate merits to the names on the plaques. The names on the plaques are also announced one by one during the Ceremony of Great Offerings in front of Buddhas on the first and fifteenth day of each month (by the lunar calendar), to pray for their safety, well-being, longevity, and auspiciousness, etc.
