Transcendence Service for the Deceased

Designate the memorial plaques for deceased parents, family members, ancestors, unborn children, pets, karmic creditors, land guardians etc.; pray for the auspicious rebirth to the three better paths, or the blissful pure land, and ultimate free from sufferings. The designator's blessing also grows as a result of the dedication.

The memorial plaques are enshrined in the memorial Hall at the Triple Crane Retreat Center.

Resident Sanghas recite sutras during daily ritual either in the morning or evening and dedicate merits to the names on the plaques. The names on the plaques are also announced one by one during the Ceremony of the Great Offering with foods, flowers, fruits and candles in front of Buddhas on the first and fifteenth day of each month (by the lunar calendar). The prayer goes to the deceased to rest in peace in Buddha's presence.
